Description:

Ready for the big performance!

It is simply impossible to enjoy music without a decent bass. The bass not only somehow belongs to a song, it plays a vital part concerning the perfect sound. That is out of the question. With the AZ series OMNITRONIC now presents the new PA subwoofer series, that is aware of its responsibility. Its trademark: a very high durability paired with an extraordinary sound capacity. Moreover the subs, when subject to rigorous demands, can convince through their powerful and dry bass. Considering the cheap price you can not necessarily act on the assumption that these subwoofers come up with highest quality. But exactly this is the case. An example therefor can be given with the aluminum chassis. The sound becomes clearer and more accurate compared with the steel pendants. In addition, aluminum guarantees a higher stability, something that makes sense for huge subwoofers. In combination with the tops of the AZ series, the basses are the ideal combination also for larger rooms and are perfectly suited for the stage and for discos.
