Description:

Access with style!

Every beginning is difficult as is generally known. This wisdom also includes the acquisition of how to play the guitar. But if you go for a DIMAVERY ST-203, the first step to become a string acrobat is edged down considerably. Why? A legitimate question. Here comes the answer: On the one hand the good workmanship enables a comfortable handling. This fact must not be underestimated when a greenhorn gets into an instrument like the guitar. On the other hand the transparent and sharp or edgy sound immediately gives pleasure even if not all notes are played correctly. And in addition there is this classic form of the legendary stratocaster construction. In interaction with the restrained skull design it is a real eye-catcher, which doesn't only perfectly fit the new generation of punk rockers.
