Description:

All my bags are packed...!

What's a cow for an Indian is a record for a DJ: a sainthood. That is why the latter always tries to protect his preciousness and to keep it free of too much stress. And that is exactly where our record case enters the scene. 50 records can easily take a seat and relax in the interior of the stylish hard-sided flight case. Not only, that the records are orderly stored, they are also all set up for any transport. The scratch and shock-proof ABS-housing knows how to defend itself against shocks and thus represents the secure and rugged construction of the case.
