Description:

Not for the faint of heart!

You want to scare the visitors of your motto or Halloween party? Then the "Pop-up" pumpkin from Europalms can't be missed.

At first glance, the Halloween bust with a monster's grimace dressed in dark scraps of fabric does not immediately catch the eye. But CAUTION: especially fearful people should beware of it! Due to a built-in mechanism, its head shoots up explosively after activation and slowly lowers again. At the same time, a bloodcurdling scream with spooky sound is heard. Red LEDs flash in the hollowed pumpkin head.

The figure's skeletal hands are attached to the head with cable ties.

Animation is activated by built-in microphone or wired manual control. Please ensure a sufficiently large and secured set-down area before operation, as the figure moves on its own.
