Description:

Whether as a spooky highlight for the entrance area, above the buffet or as part of an enchanted pumpkin patch - this cursed pumpkin head creates a goosebump atmosphere and guarantees unforgettable moments of shock!

Designed as a hanging figure, this ominous pumpkin head seems to float in space, ready to spread its curse. Its grotesque grimace with a gaping mouth and malicious look is carved into the pumpkin and gives you the shivers just by looking at it. Long straw hair topped with a hat made of plucks completes the overall picture of the creepy figure. But then the real horror begins: With a sudden flash, the pumpkin head begins to pulsate ominously in red. The ghostly light bathes his hateful grin in an eerie glow, while rumbling, wailing sounds can be heard as if from nowhere. It gives the impression that the curse is growing stronger with every flare-up.

Thanks to a practical loop that serves as a hanger, the figure can be positioned flexibly. The animation of the Halloween decoration is activated by wired control.
