Description:

Smokers find a ready welcome!

In the past, ashtrays in bars had only one form and one position: small, round and placed on a table or bar. However, nowadays you are looking for this version in vain as new non smoking laws were introduced, moving smokers outdoors. And there, cigarette ends are mainly thrown on the floor ploddingly be picked up the next day. But you can fight against that.

Appropriate and well manufactured ashtrays offer the easiest solution, like our "window" stainless steel model. It can conveniently be fixed on the wall and offers a rain shelter which prevents the dirt from getting all wet and soaky. The ashtray's special feature is its waterproof window, where advertisement or address sheets can easily be placed.

In addition, due to its rust free stainless steel it won't start getting rusty and therefore will remain elegant and stylish. Incidentally we also keep further ashtrays in stock which are all together predestinated for outdoor use.
